

Los Angeles Times

Shavo Odadjian puts home up for sale in Woodland Hills

Shavo Odadjian of the band System of a Down has listed his Woodland Hills house for sale at $1.1 million.

Lauren Beale | October 10, 2014 | Real Estate
Link to original article.

(Image credit: Marc and Tiffany Angeles / Unlimited Style Real Estate Photography)

“Boom!” Shavo Odadjian of System of a Down, the Grammy-winning metal band with a penchant for one-word song titles, has listed his Woodland Hills home at $1.1 million.

Designed for entertaining and family living, the Traditional-style house was built in 1964 and has hillside and mountain views. The 3,424 square feet of living space includes a living room with a fireplace, a family room with a wet bar, five bedrooms, four bathrooms and two fireplaces.

A swimming pool with a spa, an outdoor kitchen, a fire pit and decks complete the quarter-acre of grounds. There's a three-car garage.

Odadjian, 40, recently started hosting his own radio show, iHeartsHaVo, on Iheartradio.

The accomplished bassist also directs and film edits Rod Serling-esque music videos. DJ DecompozeR, as he is also known, has worked with Achozen and George Clinton of P-Funk.

He bought the house in 2002 for $690,000, public records show.